The Institutes for Advanced Topics in the Digital Humanities program aims to support national or multistate training programs for scholars, humanities professionals, and advanced graduate students to broaden and extend their knowledge of digital humanities. NEH seeks to "increase the number of humanities scholars and practitioners using digital technology in their research and to broadly disseminate knowledge about advanced technology tools and methodologies relevant to humanities." Optional Drafts are due January 19, 2021, and applications are due March 2, 2021. For more information, click here.

For Comment!

The NSF Published a notice in the Federal Register announcing the availability of a “For Comment” draft of the Proposal & Award Policies & Procedures Guide (PAPPG). The Foundation is accepting comments from the external community by February 12, 2021. The draft PAPPG is available on the Policy Office website. Find the link to the Federal Register here!