

Make Money May

April showers bring May flowers and summer hours! We here at ORGA wish everyone best of luck as you wrap up finals and end the semester. Check out what awesome grant opportunities we have to share this month, including a grant from the Coastal Community Foundation everyone is eligible for and new grants from CORE SC, an organization supported by ORGA that seeks to better the reliance of South Carolina.

What kinds of grants opportunities do you want us to find? Let us know by emailing us at grants@cofc.edu.

See the Funding Opportunities Spreadsheet for upcoming and future grant opportunities!

Contact the ORGA staff with grants-related and research compliance-related inquiries at grants@cofc.edu and/or compliance@cofc.edu

Helpful Tips

Budgets, Narratives, Grant Money...Oh My!

Every grant has a grant budget to legitimize your ask to grantmaking organizations. Read The Ultimate Guide to Grant Proposal Budgets for questions to keep in mind when writing your budget and the budget narrative.

ALL

Coastal Community Foundation Open Grants: Due 1 JUN 2023

The Coastal Community Foundation of South Carolina is accepting proposals for their Open Grants until June 1, 2023. Proposals addressing the Arts, Hospice Care, Alzheimer's and related disorders may ask for funding up to $15,000. All other disciplines and focuses may request up to $10,000 if in Berkeley, Charleston and/or Dorchester counties.

National Institute of Standards and Technology Standards Curricula Development Program: Due 4 JUN 2023

The National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) Standards Curricula Development Program is funding proposals that range $100,000 to $150,000. Projects should assist in developing undergraduate and/or graduate curricula about domestic and global markets as well as the impact of standards and standards development. Applications are accepted until June 4, 2023.

ARTS

National Endowment for the Arts Grants for Art Projects: Due 6 JUL 2023

The National Endowment for the Arts Grants for Art Projects is funding proposals ranging $10,000 to $100,000. Projects should be based in arts education, community-based, and/or contribute to the overall arts sector with focuses including interdisciplinary, artists-focused and supports creative and cultural heritage. Applications are accepted until July, 6 2023.

HEALTH SCIENCES

National Institute of Health R15 Academic Research Enhancement Award for Undergraduate-Focused Institutions: Due 25 JUN 2023

The National Institute of Health (NIH) is now accepting proposals for the R15 Academic Research Enhancement Award for Undergraduate-Focused Institutions grant until June 25, 2023. This grant opportunity is a part of their on-going effort to grow research at educational institutions that have not receive substantial funding from the NIH. Funding should be used to foster a research environment and give undergraduate students biomedical research experience through active participation. Up to $300,000 may be requested for the projects with a maximum of 3 years.

HUMANITIES

Infrastructure and Capacity Building Challenge Grants Collaboration Program from National Endowment for the Humanities: Due 17 MAY 2023

The NEH is accepting application for the Infrastructure and Capacity Building Challenge Grants until May 17, 2023. This opportunity aims to expansion, restoration and construction of facilities designed to support activities in the humanities. Up to $1,000,000 can be requested in funding. Please note the NEH's three levels of awards with differing matching ratios. (i.e., requests up to $150,000 the match ratio is 1:1. $150,001 to $500,000 it is 3:1. For Chair's Special Awards of $500,001-$1,000,000, it is 4:1.)

STEM

Center of Resilience Excellence in South Carolina Innovation Grant: LOI Due 8 MAY 2023; Grant Deadling 5 JUN 2023

The Center of Resilience Excellence in South Carolina (CORE SC) is now accepting applications for the Innovation Grant. Up to $25,000 in funding will be awarded to organizations whose projects seek to provide solutions to resilience challenges through expanding and/or testing on innovative solutions to benefit South Carolina. Results of projects may be utilized to achieve one or more critical milestones toward identifying solutions to resilience challenges, providing data and/or findings that can be used by NASA and other supporting organizations. Letter of intent is due May 8, 2023 and full application deadline is June 5, 2023.

Center of Resilience Excellence in South Carolina Pilot & Demonstration Grant: LOI Due 8 MAY 2023; Grant Deadling 5 JUN 2023

The Center of Resilience Excellence in South Carolina (CORE SC) is now accepting applications for the Pilot and Demonstrator Grant. Up to $25,000 in funding to organizations in piloting or demonstrating a solution that will develop scalable, replicable, and sustainable solutions to South Carolina's resilience challenges. Project should contribute to South Carolina's economic, environmental, and/or social betterment. Results of projects may be utilized to achieve one or more critical milestones toward identifying solutions to resilience challenges, providing data and/or findings that can be used by NASA and other supporting organizations. Letter of intent is due May 8, 2023, and full application deadline is June 5, 2023.