Attendees will also have the opportunity to submit questions to and speak with program speakers during the conference. Interested parties should register here, view the program agenda, and submit questions to program speakers prior to the event.

The National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) Funding Opportunity Announcements

The Public Humanities Projects program supports projects that showcase the humanities through appealing and interpretive public programming for broad and diverse general audiences. Project topics can be on an international, national, regional or local scale, but must engage humanities scholarship to analyze significant themes in history, literature, ethics or art history. The program supports three project categories of work, Exhibitions, Historic Places, and Humanities Discussions, at two funding levels, Planning and Implementation. Planning Projects support programs lasting 24 months with budgets up to $75,000. Implementation Projects support programs up to 48 months with budgets not exceeding $400,000. Optional drafts are due 7 DEC 2022. The full proposal deadline is 11 JAN, 2023.

The Media Projects program supports the development, production, and distribution of radio programs, podcasts, documentary films/series that engage general audiences with humanities ideas in creative and appealing ways. Projects must be grounded in humanities scholarship and demonstrate an approach that is thoughtful, balanced, and analytical. Two funding levels are available for Media Projects: Developmental and Production. Developmental Projects will support programs ranging 6 to 12 months in duration with budgets up to $75,000. Production Media Projects will support programs ranging 1 to 3 years in duration with budgets up to $700,000. Optional drafts are due 7 DEC 2022. The full proposal deadline is 11 JAN 2023.

The Digital Humanities Advancement Grants (DHAG) program supports innovative, experimental, and/or computationally challenging digital projects that enhance research, teaching, and public programming in the humanities. Projects are expected to produce digital mediums, such as, articles, digital infrastructure, digital resources or publications, reports, software, teaching resources, or workshops. The DHAG program will support projects up to 36 months in duration with three budget levels: Level I awards $75,000, Level II awards $150,000 in funding, and Level III awards $350,000 in program support with as additional $50,000 in matching funds. Optional drafts are due 14 NOV 2022. The full proposal deadline is 12 JAN 2023.

The Spencer Foundation's Research Grants in Education: Small and Large

The Spencer Foundation is a non-profit organization that invests in education research. The Research Grants on Education: Small and the Research Grants on Education: Large programs support rigorous, intellectually ambitious, and technically sound small-scale education research projects. Proposals should aim to address the most pressing questions and compelling opportunities in education. Note that these programs are "fieldinitiated" in that proposal submissions are not in response to a specific research topic/discipline/design/method. Bather, the goal of the program is to support scholars in developing new.

topic/discipline/design/method. Rather, the goal of the program is to support scholars in developing new foundational knowledge that may have a long lasting impact on education. Projects may range from 1 to 5 years in duration. The Small Grants program will support projects with budgets up to $50,000, and the full proposal deadline is 5 DEC 2022. The Large Grants Program will support projects with budgets up to $500,000, and the full proposal deadline is 22 FEB 2023.
